TERMS AND CONDITIONS

During the two-day event, August 2nd & 3rd, you will abide by the following rules:

1. There will be one exhibiting entity per booth. This may be an individual artist or a gallery or studio of multiple artists identified under one name. Multiple artists with individual studios may not occupy one booth.
2. All booth assignments are final. Assigned booths cannot be sublet or traded without express permission of the Festival Director.
3. Reassignment of your booth is prohibited. If you are unable to attend, you MUST contact the Festival Director. Once participants are accepted, booth fees are non-refundable. No Exceptions.
4. Tents will be provided with flaps (attached after closing on Friday night), 1 table and 2 chairs. Lighting for your 10 X 10 space will be available in ceiling of tents. There is limited electric access. You must provide your own grounded extension cords. You must provide other related items for display.
5. The security of your items is your responsibility. The Y-bridge Festival Committee will not be responsible for items damaged or stolen. The Y-bridge Festival and its officers, and agents are not liable for injury, theft, or damage to the exhibitor, any employees of the exhibitor or to the exhibitor's property or art arising out of, or pertaining to preparation for our participation in 2019's Festival.
6. Alcohol Beverages, drugs & concealed weapons are prohibited on the grounds of the Y-Bridge Arts Festival. The festival does sponsor the sale of beer and wine which must remain in the designated area. Signage defines those boundaries.
7. Participants must abide by time/assigned schedule for manning artist's booths during festival hours, and removing vehicles, equipment, artwork, out of Zane's Landing at close of event, Saturday, August 3rd beginning at 9:00PM.
8. This festival is to be free of solicitation by political candidates, organizations, unauthorized vendors/entertainers and/or public at large.
